Pelican Book Group Makes All E-Books Free for Lent Hopes to Help All Readers Experience Christ

AZTEC, N.M.—In an effort to ensure that all readers, regardless of ability to pay, are able to experience Christ through fiction during the Lenten season, Pelican Book Group will make its entire current e-book catalog free to all for the duration of the period.

Of this bold offering, Pelican editor-in-chief, Nicola Martinez, said, “I’ve always considered Pelican Book Group a ministry first, and we seek to put the message above every other business consideration. No monetary value equals the worth of one soul. It is my desire to get Christ’s message of hope, forgiveness, and salvation into the hands of as many people as possible as we approach Easter.”

All of Pelican Book Group’s current individual (non-subscription) e-book releases, including those from its White Rose Publishing, Harbourlight Books, and Watershed Books imprints, will be free—with absolutely no strings attached—on the Pelican Book Group website at www.pelicanbookgroup.com from Ash Wednesday, Feb. 18, 2015, to Holy Thursday, Apr. 2, 2015.

“During our Lenten journey towards Easter, we’re giving away e-books. And not just some e-books; the entire current catalog so that readers may experience Christ this season, regardless of the size of their wallets. It is my hope that by the time we celebrate the glorious resurrection of our Lord, Pelican titles will have touched countless hearts and shown Christ to readers in ways that are both entertaining and impacting—and hopefully even transformational,” Martinez said.

Pelican e-books are available in EPUB, PDF, and MOBI formats.
